

Ticket admits 1
Lime: Dinner & Dance

Lime Dinner & Dance

Date: Thursday 30th September 2004

Time: 7.30pm

Venue: The Park Lane Hotel, Piccadilly
London W1

Dress code: Black tie

Programme:

7.30pm: Champagne reception

8.30pm: Dinner

Over coffee: Sister Helen Prejean
(author of 'Dead Man Walking')

After dinner: Auction (conducted by Hugh Edmeades, Chairman, Christie's
South Kensington)

Followed by: Dancing (The Panto Band)

1.00am: Carriages

Auction, raffle and gift tree prizes include:

Rugby coaching session for a group of juniors led by England world cup squad member Matt Dawson.

Two 'money can't normally buy' Jordan Grand Prix F1 passes for the paddock, garage and pit lane at a 2005 Grand Prix – with the opportunity to spend the weekend with Eddie Jordan and the drivers.

Behind-the-scenes tour and lunch at the European Parliament.

Top entertainment tickets.

Unique excursions, flights and weekend breaks.

Luxury items, including: jewellery, original prints, exclusive fashions, fine food and wine.

Autographed film and music memorabilia, including: Paul McCartney, Elvis Presley, The Rolling Stones, Monty Python and Quentin Tarantino.

We regret that we shall only be able to accept cash and cheques on the night.

Amicus

Assisting Lawyers for Justice on Death Row

www.amicus-lime.com

Registered Charity

Number: 1019651